

number provided in the application but somehow the calls were not attended by the applicant. It was on 07-02-2014 only that telephonic contact was made with the applicant and his complete address was noted down and information was dispatched to the applicant vide office letter no. MIDD/5372-74 dated 08-02-2014. The PIO also submitted for the perusal of the Commission a set of information that was send to the information seeker and the same has been brought on record for reference.

From the aforesaid facts and observations, it is apparent that the information stands already furnished to the information seeker. There is no malafide on the part of the PIO in denying the information to the information seeker. The PIO acted reasonably and diligently in the matter and followed the statutory deadline as mandated under the J&K RTI Act, 2009. Delay is purely circumstantial in nature as the complainant had not provided the exact address on which the information was to be dispatched. The information stands furnished to the information seeker. No further direction in the matter is required.

The complaint is accordingly disposed of.

Notice of this decision be given free of cost to the parties.
