This is a second appeal filed by Shri Farooq Ahmad Mir against the order of the PIO and FAA. The only issue involved in this case is mode of payment fee requisitioned by the PIO vide his letter dated 30-9-2013. The appellant has only raised the ground of appeal to the effect that he did submit two bank drafts for requisite amount. The PIO insisted that the bank drafts were not requisite mode of payment, he should have paid through non judicial stamps of equal amount. The PIO in his requisition had not made any such condition for appellant to deposit the amount through non judicial stamps. Similarly the FAA also did not inform the appellant that he had made the payment through non judicial stamps and in cash or bank draft in the name of the PIO. The PIO and FAA should have not caused this delay by being non serious and casual by passing the order. The appellant further states that though he is ready to pay the amount through non judicial stamps, his payment of Rs.750/- has to be refunded by encashing the said bank draft by Shri Naseer Ahmad Wani, Ex-PIO. The PIO is directed to get the amount refunded to the appellant and appellant will deposit the amount in the shape of non judicial stamps to get the information.

This order be implemented within 10 days from the date of pronouncement in the open court i.e today.

The appeal is accordingly disposed of.
